Yuma County Sheriff Chosen to Sit on Prestigious National Board

Alexandria, VA – The National Sheriffs' Association (NSA) today announced the newest members of its' Board of Directors, which includes Yuma County Sheriff Leon Wilmot.

The Sheriff, along with three others, was appointed to fill vacant positions on the board and will stand for re-election to the position at the NSA Conference in June. The NSA board of directors represents all 3,080 sheriffs across the country and sets guidance and direction for the association. The NSA is routinely called upon to provide expert testimony on law enforcement, corrections, and court security issues before Congress.

"We are honored to have Sheriff Wilmot serve on our board. He is already a valuable asset to the Association," said NSA President Sheriff Greg Champagne. "He brings a breadth of experience serving his community as Sheriff over the past four years and serving in law enforcement for the past 30 years."

"I am extremely honored to have been asked to fill one of the vacancies on the NSA Board of Directors. It is a privilege to be able to represent not only the Arizona Sheriffs, but all elected Sheriff's throughout this Country." said Sheriff Leon Wilmot.

About NSA

The National Sheriffs' Association (NSA) is one of the largest associations of law enforcement professionals in the United States, representing more than 3,000 elected sheriffs across the nation, and a total membership of more than 20,000. NSA is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising the level of professionalism among sheriffs, their deputies, and others in the field of criminal justice and public safety. Throughout its seventy-six year history, NSA has served as an information clearinghouse for sheriffs, deputies, chiefs of police, other law enforcement professionals, state governments and the federal government.
