Arizona Sheriffs Association

Location of Incident: Phoenix, AZ

On December 4, 2014, during the Annual Arizona Association of Counties (AACo) Conference, Sheriff Leon Wilmot was elected as the President of the Arizona Sheriffs Association.

The Arizona Sheriffs Association (ASA) is an organization comprised of all fifteen elected county sheriffs who have sworn to maintain the public trust through open, honest and ethical administration of their respective offices and exercising integrity and professionalism in the use of their constitutional powers and authority.

As ASA President, Sheriff Wilmot will continue with this long standing tradition and represent the Arizona Sheriffs at various functions to address the challenges and issues facing the Office of Sheriff, as well as legislative issues. Sheriff Wilmot's first official function as ASA President was the Gubernatorial Inauguration, which he attended along with other Arizona Sheriffs. Following the inauguration, Sheriff Wilmot conducted the first ASA meeting of the year at the AACo building next to the Arizona Capital.

During 2014, Sheriff Wilmot served as ASA Vice President and President of the Arizona Sheriff's and County Attorney's Association.
