Phone Scam

Location of Incident: Yuma, AZ

The Yuma County Sheriff's Office has received numerous calls in reference to a scam that is occurring throughout Yuma County. Reporting parties have notified YCSO that a male subject, identifying himself as "Chief Deputy Warren Randall" with the Yuma County Sheriff's Office, is stating that they are out of compliance for their sex offender registration, and a warrant will be issued immediately if they don't comply. The phone number that is being used to make this call is (928) 248-3106.

The Sheriff's Office would like to remind the public that:

- We do not make any calls for collection of monies, i.e., fines, fees, bonds, etc.
- We do not request credit card information over the phone.
- We do not provide any warrant information to the public over the phone.
- When in doubt, ask the caller for a contact name and phone number for verification purposes and contact the Sheriff's Office immediately at (928) 783-4427.

We would also like to remind the community of ongoing phone scams that occur in Yuma County.

Grandparent scam: You get a phone call from someone posing as a grandchild who is supposedly out of town and in a desperate situation. They could claim to be locked in jail, have had a car accident or are in need of medical treatment. They'll want money wired to them.

Jury duty scam: This time the call is supposedly from someone at the courthouse who claims you failed to report for jury duty and a warrant has been issued for your arrest. You're then offered a choice to either pay for the warrant or have an officer sent over to arrest you. The fraudsters will typically demand that the money be paid by money transfer or by loading a prepaid card. They have been known to use actual names of local Officers and Judges in the scam to make it seem legitimate. Scammers have gone as far as using devices that allow them to display local law enforcement phone numbers on your caller ID's.

Lottery scam: While the other scams prey on fear and concern, this one aims to convince you that you've won money in foreign lottery. Never mind that you can't recall every entering one. The call will come from someone who sounds official. They'll ask for a payment up-front for supposed taxes and fees so you can collect your winnings.

IRS scam: This scam is quite similar to the jury duty scam, but takes advantage of most Americans' inherent fear of the Internal Revenue Service. The phone call purports to be from the police or an IRS agent who is demanding payment for overdue taxes. If they're not settled immediately, the call claims, you'll be arrested. They'll want the money either wired or put on prepaid card.

Utility scam: This is another fear-based scam that involves convincing you that the utility company is about to cut off service due to unpaid bills. The scammers will naturally want money sent to them by money transfer or a prepaid card.

If you believe you have been a victim, please contact your local law enforcement agency.
